In case you missed it...

Last night, Circle of Hope supporters came together virtually for HOPE Blooms, a celebration of everything we have accomplished together over the past year. Thank you to everyone who joined us! In case you missed it, read below for event highlights or click here to watch the video.

We'd like to express our deepest gratitude to our event sponsors for enabling us to create this fun event free of charge. Thank you to special guest Eden Espinosa for the incredible performance. And thank you to our supporters for helping us serve more than 24,000 individuals experiencing homelessness last year. We truly could not have done this without you!

To continue fueling our life-saving work in the coming year, please consider a gift to Circle of Hope. To donate, click the button below or text HOPEBLOOMS to 44321.

Highlights

Special Guest Eden Espinosa performed a selection of beautiful songs she chose for COH.

"Your community is so fortunate to have Circle of Hope, an organization that continues to deliver clothing, face masks, and PPE to those in need."

-Eden Espinosa
HOPE Blooms Special Guest

Circle of Hope made 194 deliveries to homeless shelters, clinics, and universities last year.

"When the pandemic began, we knew that we had to keep going. We knew that we had to be stronger than ever... We never missed a delivery during this pandemic and we just kept going."

-Jody Barnet
COH Operations Manager

We gave clothing and necessities to 3,000 families experiencing homelessness last year.

"Circle of Hope supports our families in every stage of their journey toward self-reliance and is truly essential."

-Kimberley Hicks
SMOC Congregate Shelter Director/
Scattered Site Liaison

COH distributed more than 18,500 pieces of PPE, helping prevent the spread of COVID-19 in crowded Boston-area shelters.

"It was a case of being at the right place at the right time, which is what Circle of Hope is - always at the right places at the right times, helping the most vulnerable members of our society."

-Bruce Goody
COH Board Member & Volunteer

We gave 7,530 clothing items and baby essentials to Boston Police Department to help families experiencing homelessness in Boston.

"If it wasn't for [Circle of Hope], we wouldn't be able to provide what we have for the families that we work with. Thank you, Circle of Hope, for your support."

-Antonette Cabral
Boston Police Department District E-13

Our partners shared the impact Circle of Hope has had on the homeless children, adults, and college students they serve.

"Circle of Hope came in and donated so many toiletries... anything that would help the students... We want to say, from the bottom of our hearts, thank you."

-Mariette Alyala
U-ACCESS Director
